

Sanur Village Festival 2010

Following our four consecutive successful celebrations, we are proud to announce the return of Sanur Village Festival set for August 4 – 8, 2010 taking place at Segara Jayu beach and Inna Grand Bali Beach Sanur/ “Saha Nuhur” is preferred for this year’s theme of the festival that literally means “the passion to visit a holy place” and later become the name of “Sanur”/ With its popularity we believe that Sanur Village Festival will attract more visitors to the island of Bali this year and more importantly to map this event in the world of tourism calendar/ “We always excited to have this festival underway and make it one of the brand marks Sanur has from tourist point of view. And I personally very happy with the enthusiasm of all committee members in making this activity bigger and better every year/” Said Ida Bagus Sidharta putra MBI, chairman of the Sanur Village Festival.

Chairman's message :

.B. Sidharta Putra

We thank God for giving us another chance to present Sanur Village Festival. This year will remark our 5th event. It was started in 2006 with a very humble note and since then continues to expand in term of the quality of our event as well as the quantity of our guests. This year, we choose a very sacred theme, SAHA NUHUR, which is a symbolization of our re-connection with our heritage. We can surely expect a spectacular show this year!

This year, we have our very own classic highlights of Bazaar & Food Festival, Jazz Festival, and 6th Sanur Golf Tournament as well as our most anticipated Street Parade. The International Kite Festival and Ukung Festival would definitely sensate the spectators with their artistic creations and breathtaking races.

There will be another rejuvenate of our program, with the re location of our Mass Yoga program to a serene Yoga Village.

With this message I would also like to thank everyone whose hard works and involvements, assistances, and participations had ensured the successfulness of our Sanur Village Festivals. I am certain that these people would continue to be the crucial pillars of this year’s festival/

We are ready to, once again, welcome you to our home.

Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to the 5th Sanur Village Festival 2010.
